Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) Results

North Carolina has set target goals that schools must meet to make Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) under the federal No Child Left Behind act.

Our school made adequate yearly progress.

Our school met 17 out of 17 AYP targets.

In any group where the percentage of students at a grade level is greater than 95% or less than 5%, the actual values are not displayed because of federal privacy regulations. In these cases the results are shown as >95% or <5% for the group.

Three-Year Trend of Student Performance on the ABCs End-of-Grade Reading and Math Tests

Percentage of students at or above grade level for the past three years.

---- Math      — Reading      * A multi-year trend for reading is only available beginning in 2007-08 because of new tests based on the revised Standard Course of Study.

School Performance

Each year, schools in North Carolina may receive several designations based on their performance on the state's ABCs tests. These designations are awarded on the basis of the percentage of students performing at grade level and on whether students have learned as much as they are expected to learn in one year. The designations earned by your school are displayed below, followed by a brief description of each designation.
